Serving Others

Remember to save and bring Campbell labels, from soup and other foods. These are for Hephzibah Children's home. They use them to obtain VANS for the home. Cont'd pg 2.

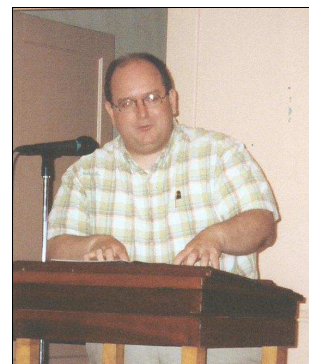

MEETING THUR. JUNE 28, 7:00PM LAST MEETING BEFORE SUMMER BREAK FAMILY PICNIC—BRING COVERED DISH(S)

No need to call for reservations.

We had only 42 at last meeting. We can do better.

May Program

Dr. Christopher Stokes Historian, Archivist
On the staff at the Washington Memorial Library, was our speaker. He kept us intrigued with a story of his (and others) in search of an author of a soldier's journal. The journal was an account of the surrender at Appomattox and about one month following that historic event.

Hats off to the wonderful decorations in remembrance of Memorial Day and those who served.

Many of us wore RED, WHITE and BLUE

June Program

Katherine Dennis Heas of the Community Foundation will be the speaker. We will learn what the Foundation does for us and for the community.

In addition to Campbell food labels, we need personal items, stationery, post cards, stamps, phone cards to donate to the Ronald McDonald house. Give them to Cecil or Elsie Daniels. They will get them to the right persons.

They are also members of the Lions Club and they recycle old eye glasses, frames, lens, old hearing aids, old cell phones, and used jet ink printer cartridges. If you have any of these items they will be happy to receive them as well.

Please buy phone tickets at the meeting
4 for $1.00
Lucky winner receives $10.00

Some Who Serve Us

Bill Johansen, putting away the name tags, one of his many volunteer jobs.

Ann Holbert, Service with a smile.

Louise Evans loves her kitchen, And the food committees love her.

Please leave these spaces for those with handicap plates or decals. We want all to have access to our building.
